Roof To Go Sky High For Post Game Block "S" Reception Dance

108 Door Prizes Will Be Awarded, Including Sports Sweaters, Theatre Passes, and Cover Charge Passes

Staters will figuratively "blow the roof off" of the women's gym Friday night when the Block "S" Society puts on its first jig, ostensibly for the purpose of welcoming the new students. Dancing will start at ten o'clock, immediately after the Gaters' first football game, and will continue until one.

One hundred and eight door prizes will be awarded. The list includes sports sweaters for one man and one woman, six cover charges to downtown hotels, and one hundred theatre passes.

Unique intermission entertainment is promised in the form of an "Icelanders" orchestral group which will play moonlight serenades on the balcony.

Jan Blair, San Francisco high school find, will be spotlighted as a blues singer. Her experience includes night club singing and the winning of several outstanding amateur contests.

Bill Hammond will be on hand with a group of "Big Apple" dancers to show SFS Collegians how the latest step is done.

Unburdened from the responsibility of piloting the State gridmen through the San Mateo Jaysee opener, co-football coaches Hal Hardin and Dan Farmer will sponsor the event. Taking care of arrangements for the Block "S" are committeemen Mike Driscoll, Vern Ouellette, Jack Hulbert and Bud Glasgow.

Driscoll points out that the jig is to take the form of a stag affair because most new students are as yet not acquainted. Admission will be twenty-five cents.

Phi Lambda Open House

Phi Lambda Chi set its annual Open House for Thursday afternoon from four until six. Refreshments will be served at the 101 Buena Vista Sorority House. All students are cordially invited to drop in during the afternoon.

Madrigal Tryouts For New Members

Due to several vacancies left by graduating members, the Madrigal Singers are now holding tryouts for new members. All those interested are requested to make appointments with Miss Eileen McCall, professor of music.

To become a member of this organization good sight-reading and intonation are the necessary qualifications.

The group as a whole will consist of fifteen regular members with a few alternates. Rehearsal days have been set for Tuesday and Thursday at twelve o'clock in Annex B4.

The Madrigal Singers have been organized since 1931, having been the first college group of its kind on the Pacific Coast. The library consists of sixteenth and seventeenth century polyphonic music. Many of the instruments used during these periods are in the properties of the Madrigal Singers. The collection amounts to approximately one thousand dollars.

According to reports a very active program has been carried out during the past years, and the organization has attained a semi-professional status. During 1936 and 1937 the Madrigals sang for sixteen concerts, the average of two per month for the college year.

English Dept. Plans Tea for Newcomers

Students will meet in the Activities Room at 4 P. M. This series of teas was inaugurated last semester and is being continued this fall. Dr. Arensen and Mrs. Ellsworth are sponsoring the tea on the 29th.

N. Y. A. allotments for all colleges has been reduced since last year. Reductions totaling as much as eight per cent of the enrollment of October, 1936, have been put into effect. Each student now employed will receive a monthly salary of $15.

Students desiring aid must give anticipated income, expenses, and anticipated deficit for the semester. Several requirements must be met before assistance will be granted the student. He or she must be in

A.W.S. Sponsors Semi-Annual Tea Honoring New State Students

A. W. S. members will play hostesses to the new students of the college at a "get-acquainted" tea scheduled for Wednesday, September 15. The purpose of the affair is to sponsor friendly relations between the faculty and executives of the college and the new members of the A. S. S. F. S. C., both freshmen and transfers. The affair is strictly invitational, but the invitations can be obtained by those interested in Room 101, on the main floor of College Hall, from Monday until Wednesday, any time between 9 and 4.

The time for the tea has been set from 4:30 until 6, and it will be held in the gymnasium, which is to be appropriately decorated in the school colors, purple and gold. It will be of an informal nature, but Freshman boys are requested not to appear in jeans.

The receiving line will consist of the Board of Deans, some of the officers of the A. W. S., and the executives of the Associated Students. The chairmen of the various committees in charge of arrangements are as follows: Invitations, Eldris Burrowes; Publicity, Robert Chamberlin; Decorations, Kay Bailey; Refreshments, Berta Bolander; Hostesses, Alice Murphy. Delma Schedules Football Rally

Yell Leader "Monk" Delma announced the first football rally of the year late Friday. Set for Friday, September 17, between the hours of twelve and one o'clock, the purpose of the gathering will be to add to student enthusiasm for the game that evening between San Mateo Junior College and the State varsity.

Feature of the afternoon will be the new State Band organized in the Music Department, with the band will be the Freeburg chorus which will sing the new State Hymn.

Additional entertainment will be offered by Evelyn Fitzpatrick, whom Hal Delma describes as "sensational," piano selections by Howard Brubeck, and vocals by the popular Gloria Stokes of Balboa High School who was so well received here last year.

All students are urged to attend.

Dr. Treutlein New A.P.G. Sponsor; Initiation Sunday

Dr. Theodore Treutlein, newly appointed sponsor of Alpha Phi Gamma, will be initiated into the fraternity Sunday night at a meeting at Clifford Worth's home. Dr. Treutlein replaces Mr. George Gibson, who is in Europe.

Plans are progressing for the fraternity convention to be held in San Francisco next November. This is the largest undertaking that the fraternity has ever accepted, and members are working full steam ahead for its success.

Two A. P. G. scholarship winners have entered State this semester. They are Phil Schmidt, winner of the John Henry Nash award, and Robert Ossgueda, Alpha Phi Gamma scholarship victor.

Anna Dorris Greets Patrons; Classes To Be Excused

State College will hold its semi-annual mass assembly for the new students Wednesday, Sept. 15, at 2 P. M. at the First Baptist Church. Classes will be dismissed in order to allow the students to attend. At this meeting the new students will become acquainted with the various social activities of the school as well as be introduced to many of the school officers.

Following the meeting a grand reception will be held in the women's gymnasium for the students.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Anna Dorris, geography instructor and lecturer. Her topic will be Visualizing Geography Teaching through Travel and Visual Aids. From 4 to 6 P. M. the gym will be open to the students for the opportunity of getting better acquainted with each other as well as the faculty.

Mrs. Dorris is speaking on behalf of the Patron's Association, an organization consisting of faculty and parents and whose main object is to aid the school in putting forward its many clubs. They have also added to the Student Loan Fund.

1938 Franciscan Honors Leaders

Outstanding campus personalities will be honored in the 1938 Franciscan. Six campus leaders will be featured in one section of the book, according to present plans.

Selection of the six will be made by student body vote. Nominations will be made by petition with each candidate requiring the sponsorship of some recognized campus organization. Judges will select twelve persons, on their work and merit, for final balloting. No member of the executive board will be eligible. Nominating petitions will be circulated within the next two weeks and definite information as to voting will be released in the near future.

"This is an attempt to honor those students who play an active yet relatively unseen part in campus activities. Any person is eligible for nomination. We would like to make some award to go with this contest but are unable to do so. Possibly some group or organization will see fit to assume co-sponsorship of this idea," declared Bill Buchan, editor, "so that this may become a permanent thing at the college."

ATTENTION

Presidents of classes and clubs ... Please submit copies of your social program for the semester to the Activities Committee as soon as possible in order to make reservations for the Activity Room. Final date is October 15.

EDITORIALS

Editorials and feature articles in the Golden Gater reflect only the writer's opinion. They make no claim to represent student or administration opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the Editor.

Frosh... welcome!

One of the pleasant little tasks that beset the editor at the beginning of each semester is to scribe a more or less lengthy document dedicated to freshmen, and to bid them welcome. Therefore, freshmen, take heed, and read on:

Having successfully lived through this first week of embarkation upon your college career, and having followed or defied the advice of many counselors, you now become eligible to consider the advice and counsel of one who has braved the storm these three years.

If you want to make a lot of friends, and to be popular, trot about on your errands with the widest possible grin on your face. Anyone who sees a grin can't help but grin back, and so an acquaintance is made.

If you want to get ahead, and become the president of this or that society or organization, get in with the right people. Make your friends among the bigger splashes in the puddle. It's not as hard to do as you would imagine, because once upon a time those big splashes were scrubs even as thou, and beneath those sophisticated exteriors there beat sympathetic hearts.

If you want to give of yourself to the school, there are many takers. Athletics, Drama, Debating, Journalism, and all the rest need new talent. Seek them out and let them know what you have to offer.

If you're here to become a teacher, trod the straight and narrow, with but few sightseeing trips to the right or left.

If you want good grades, be careful of your study time, and see that it be devoted only to study. And hear ye not of cutting!

Now if you can follow all this, you're a better man than most of us, because we couldn't.

And now having delivered this weight from my brow to the paper, let me extend to you the heartiest welcome possible with the hope that college will mean all to you that you hope it will.

Editorial Policy

At the start of each semester the editor of the Golden Gater devotes an editorial to a declaration of the current Editorial Policy of the paper. This semester's policy is to be very clear, and every effort is to be made to keep the paper indisputably within the bounds of that policy.

The Golden Gater is prepared to cover EVERY event on or off the campus that is of interest to more than twenty-five college people. However, the management of the paper must know what is coming up. Therefore, full responsibility for informing us thoroughly about college events rests with those who are in charge of the various activities. If they will let the editor know what is planned, a reporter will be assigned to the story and the utmost publicity will be given each affair to help make it successful.

The faculty has complained that in the past they have been mis-quoted and otherwise ill treated by the paper. This semester, in order to overcome such difficulties, a suitable form for the preparation of quotations from faculty members is being prepared, and every member of the faculty who is to be quoted will be asked to countersign the quotation before it appears in the paper. This step will not only protect the faculty, but it will be a step toward improving the general accuracy of the paper. After the rush of the first issue, this form will be in general use.

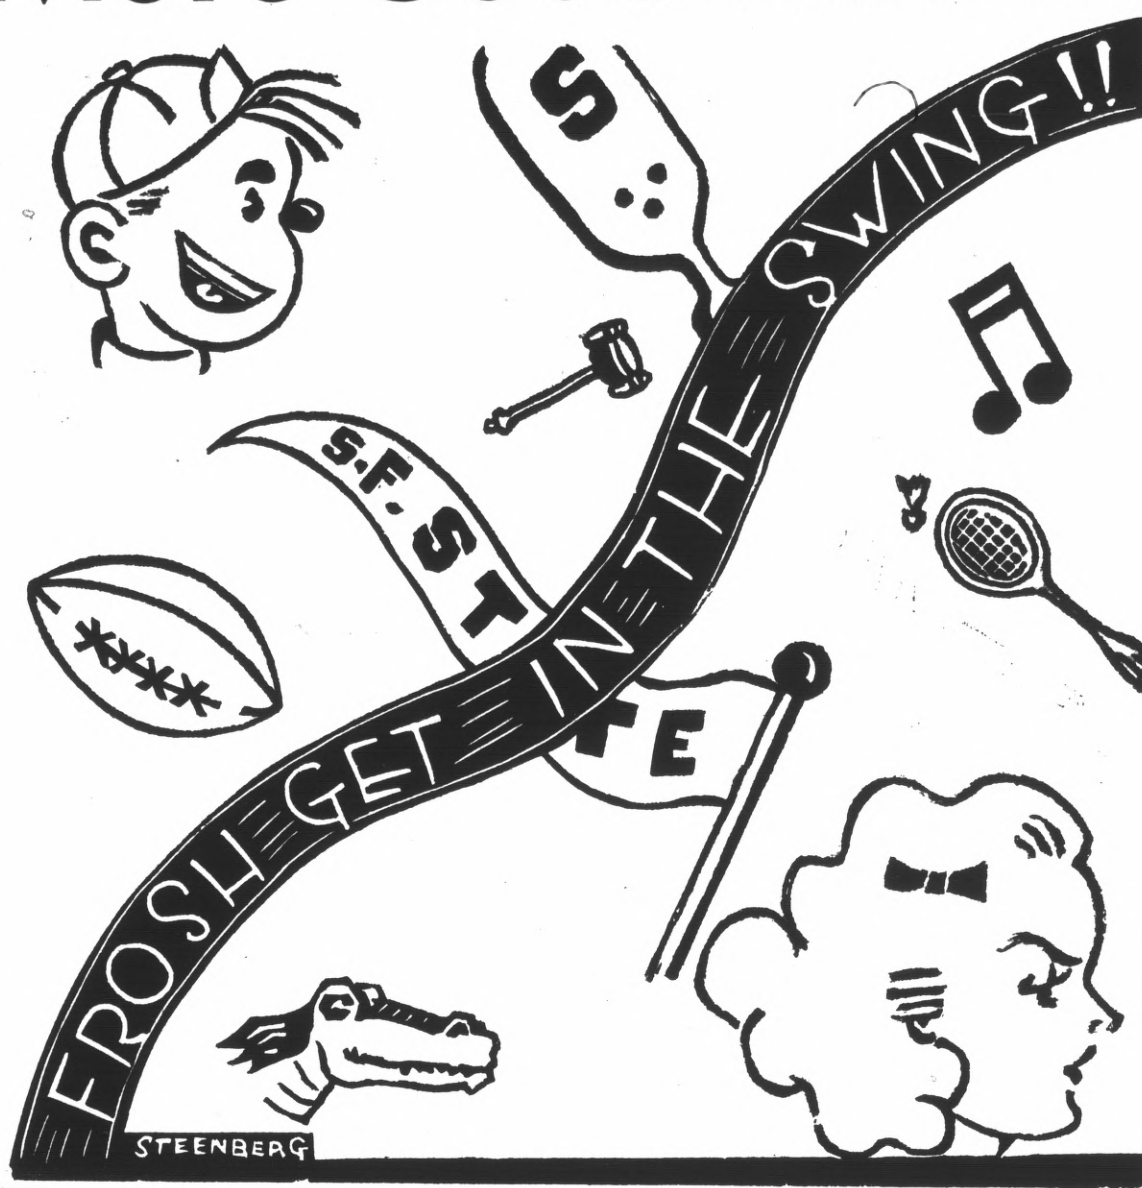

If at any time any one person, or group of persons, feels that he or she has been mistreated by the paper, do not hesitate to express yourself. The Gater offices, Room 114, will always be open to anyone in such a position, and every effort will be made to rectify errors.

To sum up this semester's policy: The Golden Gater will be used exclusively to properly conduct its function of a news organ for the entire college, and to improve the standards of the paper to such a point where it is approved by each person who reads it.

This semester the paper will come out on Mondays and Thursdays. These new dates will guarantee the maximum of live news in each issue.

Now a request. Please drop a note to Clifford Worth, Box 240, and make any suggestion, at any time, about any feature of the paper which you do not approve of.

MESSAGES FROM COLLEGE HEADS

I should like to be able to greet you personally and offer a cheery hello, but since this is impossible at present, I'll have to extend my greeting in this manner.

Already you have impressed us with your size and your tremendous possibilities as a class under the State banner. From among your ranks there have been whispers that "This is the outstanding Freshman class in the history of the college." Substantially, this is true. There remains now only the necessary work as a group to cement this first big rush of enthusiasm into the more enduring form of extra curricular achievement.

As president of the student body, I can only say I am entirely sympathetic with your aims. I will try to be a friend in every sense the word implies. Here's more power to you and all the luck the law allows.

WILLIAM J. J. SMITH,
President.

The College opens to you as a great adventure. The first year in college is different, nothing like it in your experience before, and nothing like it will ever come to you again.

At the end of the year, a few will have made outstanding records in scholarship, college activities, and community relationships. Most of you will have made entirely satisfactory records. A few of you, unfortunately, will make unwise choices of your friends; fill up your time with trivialities; avoid the straight forward road of hard study and steady living which leads to college success, and came to the end of the Freshman year in disappointment, discouragement, and futility.

To each of you this very personal word: Your very presence here indicates the expert opinion of many trained educators in your high schools that you have the qualities of mind and heart that will enable you to do satisfactory college work. We bid you welcome, and wish you complete success.

ALEXANDER C. ROBERTS.

Since I haven't had the opportunity to meet every one of you personally, I would like to use these lines to extend a very cordial welcome to all new student body members. I'm very happy that you chose our college in which to further your ambitions, and I hope that your stay at San Francisco State will be a pleasant one, filled with new experiences and new friendships. Of course, that really depends on your taking part in the many activities that we have to offer, and I want to urge you to do just this thing.

I attended one of your Freshman meetings, and believe me, I was greatly impressed by its size, pep, enthusiasm, cooperation, and originality. With these qualities you're sure to go ahead and become real Staters. We're all expecting big things from you—don't disappoint us!

DAWN WILSON,
Vice-President.

TIM GUINEY

Pardon me if I wax a bit enthusiastic upon the subject of Mr. William John Joseph Smith, or just plain William John Joseph Smith, as he is affectionately or otherwise known to his many friends on the quote campus unquote.

For the benefit of the entering Freshmen, who perhaps admired the purple and gold cover make-up of the college handbook, and then relegated it to the ash-pile, it might not be amiss at this point to tell you that our William John Joseph is just about the newest thing in domestic streamlined student body presidents.

The kid has got something, although I can't put my finger on just what it is. He is not only the president of this student body, but actually doubles in brass to the extent of being a president among presidents. What we mean is that during the past summer the Pacific Coast College Student Body Presidents' Association convened at the University of Washington, and Smith was elected President of the group.

The election was strictly on the up-and-up, and did not cost the Smith supporters more than a few beers. Pretzels, of course, were thrown in to boot.

The Smith personality is something closely akin to an electric light switch. The juice can be turned on or off at will, leaving the face wreathed in smiles along with a pleasant twinkle of the eye, or if he so desires, a sympathetic countenance guaranteed to wring the heart of the coldest pawn-broker.

STATE'S STELLAR BACKBONE

By ED SMITH

Well, well, comes the new term, new studs, new grid prospects, and a brand new, spic-spinnin' pigskin schedule. Get a glance at it and you will know at what I'm driving, that State is very ambitious this time. The team? Who knows. It will by far be the youngest and heaviest . . . and fastest. Just for ducks (or take your quail) go down to Roberts Field (what! you don't know where that is?) and see the team perform on the greensward. Then I leave it up to you. But don't be disillusioned and make hasty opinions . . . it was a scrawny Gater squad that took the Apprentices into camp 26 to 0. You'll be surprised!

About the Staff

Not bragging, but some one has to toot the horn, this page will offer you the best writing talent that can be garnered from these portals. Guess What

News! News! No, a man did not bite a dog, but the big bug "Football" has bitten Dave Cox, and Dave turned on the bug and bit it. Result? There will be a Frosh football team. "By the Gods . . ." The fighting Red-headed Rancher confided to me that Tom Bragg, former State grid star, will be the coach. "By the Gods" also said that I was to be the star quarterback, but after he told me there was a strange feeling in my leg like someone was pulling it. But you Freshmen who would like to be great on the gridiron, here is your chance. Cox already has several games lined up for those who are eager to take a chance. Grab your suits now, and let's have a hustle!

Class? Pep? Sure!

This year will see a new high in entertainment and show at the games. Intramural Football To Start Soon

Although the intra-mural manager, Dave Schutz, and Coach Cox have not definitely decided on the starting date, the intra-mural football tournament is scheduled to commence play in the near future.

This annual affair has always been well received by the men of the various organizations and classes, and it is the hope of Manager Schutz that this year's tournament will excel all the previous years' tournaments. He said:

"Coach Cox and I have been working on this year's intra-mural tournament and we both hope that this year's will have a larger representation than that of any previous year. Due to the large number of freshmen and the necessary larger number of P.E. 80a classes, we expect a larger representation from that quarter, as in the past every freshman P.E. activities class has been well represented by at least one and usually two teams. We shall also expect the usual large quota of teams from the various men's clubs and the other physical education classes."

Last year the football tournament was represented by a multitude of teams bearing such quaint names as Schwartz's Pugs, Paiva's Musclemen, Karter's Kids, the Block S, the Newman Club, and the Tumblers. The tourney lasted for several weeks with approximately one hundred men in all participating during their noon hours. In the final play-off of the meet, the Musclemen toted home their blue ribbons by defeating the gold ribbon winners, the Pugs, 12-0.

It is the hope of both Coach Cox and Schutz that this year's schedule will be able to be made out on a round-robin schedule, such as the baseball tournament of last semester was, thus giving all the players participation in more games, therefore allowing them more enjoyment out of the whole tournament.

STATE SPIRIT GROWS

Contrast two scenes, if you please, of the Gater Grid squads of last year and the year before. It is 1935, the last moments before the Mare Island game, and you are in the Gater dressing room. The players have finished dressing and are waiting around for the signal to go on the field. There doesn't seem to be much nervousness, much worrying over the game. A couple of the boys are talking over their teaching problems; another is whistling (the most deadly sin of any pre-game locker room), altogether there is an air of tranquility that is not characteristic of a team going into a game.

It is 1936, you are in the dressing room of the Gaters just before the Mare Island game. The boys have finished dressing and are waiting for the signal to go onto Roberts Field. Everyone is tense, nervous, on edge. No one talks much. One fellow bends over to tie his shoe string and his hand shakes. Two others are talking, but in low, subdued tones, everyone is waiting for the signal that will take them onto the field for the first game.

The score of the Mare Island-State game of '35 was 2-0.

The score of the Mare Island-State game of '36 was 26-0.

Now that may not mean anything to you that have never taken part in any athletic events that call for competition against another team or individual. But ask any coach, any player, just how important that pre-game last minute attitude is. It's something that can't be explained very clearly. But the team that is cocky, noisy and nonchalant in the dressing room usually goes out and plays a sloppy game.

What does this show? That the Gaters are growing up in the sense that the football team is beginning to realize the task that is before them. This year we have an exceptionally tough schedule for the Gaters to wade through. They'll make it with flying colors. Why? Because State has grown.

KAY KIRCHER NATIONAL A. A. U. CHAMPION ENROLLS AT STATE

State's growing group of athletes received a welcome addition last week with the enrollment of National A. A. U. Championship distance swimmer Kay Kircher.

The freckle-faced aquatic star began her competitive career less than a year ago when she finished third in the San Francisco Chronicle's annual Columbus Day half mile swim. She suspended her swimming activities during the ensuing ten months, resuming intensive training at the end of August.

In the N. A. A. U. finals, held September 6 at Fleishhacker Pool, Miss Kircher finished sixth in the one mile free-style and swam on the Crystal Plunge Swimming Club team which placed second behind the Washington Athletic Club four, six times winners of the event.

The seventeen-year-old ace graduated from Tamalpais High School last June. She will pursue a pre-nursing course for one year and thereafter work at St. Joseph's Hospital.

State May Enter Ring Team; Boxing To Go On Varsity Rating

By JIM MARTIN

That the long-dreamed-of program of Gater competition, minor athletics is about to be really launched was confirmed last week when Coach Dan Farmer announced plans for a varsity boxing team. The program to date includes formation of the team, purchase of new equipment, and arrangement of a schedule for the leather pushers.

In extolling the idea, Farmer stated, "I have always been in favor of a varsity boxing team which might engage in an elimination tournament with Bay Region colleges of our own class. This semester seems to be the right time to start the program provided we can get the necessary support from the student body."

Paiva, Schwartz Interested

Farmer further stated that the only condition needed for a final boost to the move would be the appointment of a manager and an assistant to arrange for a schedule and practice with the aspirants. In this respect, two State students, George Piava, former inter-collegiate heavyweight champion, and Maury Schwartz, holder of several amateur titles, have already announced their interest in putting State on the fistic map.

Added Equipment

Two heavy punching bags will be shortly added to the list of equipment already on hand. These, along with the recently purchased ring, mat, and new gloves will be reserved for the use of the boxing class and those trying out for the varsity team.

Coach Farmer further stated that all those interested in competing for the team should see him immediately so that a practice schedule could be arranged. If possible, the boxing team will work out twice a week along with the regular class in this sport.

Join Conference

Several local colleges, including San Francisco Junior College, San Mateo Junior College, San Jose State, and Cal-Aggies have already started on an inter-collegiate boxing program. With up-to-date equipment on hand and the appointment of a manager, the support of the student body is all that is needed to find the Gaters a spot in the popular sport.

Bud Chandler, the big blond "Gabby" Bill Abbey and his new competitor for the quarter job, Bill Osborne. Charley Iago is back again as well as Hal Wood and Ed Collins. From this thin list of experienced men Farmer and Harden will have to select their open line-up to face San Mateo.

Beseman, Harkness and Kelnhofer Expected to Carry Brunt of Attack

By KEN JOHNSON

With their first week of practice over, the heads of co-coaches Dan Farmer and Hal Harden are bowed in worry. Missing are the familiar faces of the men that bolstered up the front wall of their varsity last year. Gone are the reserves that were counted on to fill the vacancies made by graduation. Tackles must be made out of guards, ends out of tackles, and they all must come from a squad that numbers thirty-seven.

Farmer Talks

So this year's varsity may be typical of other State teams unless the roster swells suddenly. As Farmer explains:

"Out of twenty-two lettermen of last year we have ten men back. We have our old problem again, lack of reserve power, one man for each position. No reserves and no junior varsity from which we can draw experienced men."

Heading the list of thinning veterans is Captain Hal Beseman, varsity tackle for the last three years. Big and experienced Beseman will take over one tackle position. Flanking him, in his second year of football, is Runar Stone, former track star and the only returning end with experience. At the guards, Louie Glavich and Ralph Kaur are the mainstays. Glavich with one year of varsity experience is big and fast. Kaur, a made-over center, may have to play tackle to fill the vacancy left by Bill Plutte.

The shifting of Hook Hanrahan from tackle to guard may cut down the effectiveness of the big Irishman, but he may prove to be a better guard than a tackle. At the center post, back after a year's absence, is Bud Glasgow, a big fast man who should have a good year, but may have trouble after a year's absence.

It may be the new men that will furnish the bulk of the reserve power and fill the positions now open. Pantages, Jackson, Schwartz and Decker look likely. Pantages is slow but handles his weight well. Inexperience is his main drawback. Jackson, probably the most likely candidate, is big and fast, but also needs seasoning. Maurie Schwarz, wrestler and fighter, looks like a great possibility. Fast and tricky, but needs weight. Bud Decker, former cheer leader, needs experience but may develop into a center.

But it is in the back field that Farmer and Harden have few worries. Standing three deep in most of the positions are shifty, experienced men. Heading the list is Bill Harkness, State's triple threat man who will do the kicking and passing. Harkness, now a senior, has three years of experience behind him, and should have his best year coming up. It was Harkness' pitching that kept State in the running last year. Then there is Bobby Kelenhoffer, the midget outside half of last year,

103 State Graduates Are Given Teaching Positions

Matrimony Steps in Path of Five; Some Take Graduate Work

"A good teaching record, good personality, and active participation in some line such as crafts, journalism, music and the like, seem to have been very effective in the placement of our May graduates," remarked Mrs. Downey, Secretary of the Placement Department, when discussing the placement of State College graduates.

Last May about 200 students graduated from State College. This number included approximately twenty-two who received liberal arts credentials, and fifteen teachers in service. Quite a number were post-graduates from the University of California, Stanford, and Holy Names.

Out of this number 103 have been placed in new teaching positions.

Eight students from the Spring class are doing graduate work, four of them here at State, and one each at Stanford, Columbia, California, and Santa Barbara.

Paul Donaldson and Stanley Sieber are attending the school for the deaf where they are trained in the capacity of instructor for this type of institution.

Marriage or intentions to wed accounts for about five members of the class. Miss Dolores Harris and Miss Dorothy Murray definitely intend to take this step and it is believed that several others have similar plans.

Miss Leonore McCrystle is teaching twenty-two Indian children in an Alpine County school.

A position in a post office claimed one graduate, another is working for the Telephone Company, another is doing playground work and still another is giving private music lessons.

Open Road Today

Speaking on the "Sino-Japanese Conflict, Past, Present, and Future," Mr. Patrick Pichi Sun, Deputy Consul of China, will open the first of a series of lectures to be presented this semester by the Open Road Club.

The Open Road has invited as speakers those who are representative of a people, a policy, or of a religious belief, vitally affected by the reality of "World Peace." These lectures will be open to everyone.

At noon today in the Activities Room, the Open Road invites its new members and those interested in becoming new members to a get-together meeting in the form of a "Do-Nut Dunk."

Camera Club To Aid Photo Bugs

When you line your camera on a victim, is he standing by a tree with a dizzy smile on his face? The law of averages says "yes," and "the only result can be an uninteresting snapshot," according to Harold Martin, SFSC Publicity Director and former president of the college Camera Club. So to remedy this situation, Staters anxious to improve their style are offered membership in the club.

Again sponsored by Dr. Stanley Morse, the group will gather in Room 117 at noon weekly, starting Wednesday.

Meetings will be devoted to discussions of photography by members as well as by outside experts.

Sigma Rho Gamma Holds Luncheon

The officers of Sigma Rho Gamma, along with their sponsor, Miss Cecilia Andersen, had a pre-season luncheon at Zeiss' Candy Store Friday where they discussed plans for the oncoming semester. Among the many projected excursions for the group included a cross-bay hike, a bridge party, tea party at the home of their sponsor, and they will climax their season with their informal initiation on the 25th of September.

President Lillian Johnson invites all Rainbow Girls on the campus to join the club. The new girls at the college, who have not heard of the club, are especially asked to come to the first meeting which will be held Monday, Sept. 13.

First Noon Dance Given Wednesday

The first of the Fall Semester's Noon Day Dances will be given in the gym next Wednesday, September 15th, at twelve o'clock. Sponsorship will be by the "W.A.A." and "Block S", with Evelyn Strademan, "W.A.A." president, and Mike Driscoll, "Block S" president, in charge. Lee Scarlett's Orchestra has been brought back again to entertain you with their peppy "tunes of terpsichore."

Each Wednesday noon a different class or organization will sponsor and finance the dance. A trophy will be awarded at the end of the term to the organization which puts on the best all-round affair.

Class presidents should immediately contact Mike Driscoll, if they want their classes to sponsor one of these dances, because there are only six open dates left.

ADVISORY COUNCIL PLANS RECEPTION

Thursday, September 16, is a great day for the Freshmen of San Francisco State. It is the last day of initiation. They will be formally told that their first miseries are over. (Accent on first.) The Advisory Council is having its traditional reception in the Frederic Burk Auditorium from 11:30 to 1. Freshmen, it is most important that you attend this affair in order to meet your student advisors and members of the faculty. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided, but you may bring your own sandwiches just in case.

Shull Named New Coach of College Debaters

Bill Rose, Veteran Debater To Lead Reorganization of Delta Sigma in Drive to Re-establish Forensics

Attempting to reestablish Delta Sigma, College forensic fraternity, in order that it may assume its former prominent position among the Pacific Coast's leading debate circles, all members, active and inactive, and all other persons interested in debate and oratory are invited to attend the first meeting of the semester, Thursday, Sept. 16, at 11 o'clock in Annex A 8. Bill Rose, veteran debater, is in charge of the reorganization.

Mr. Claud A. Shull, instructor in English, is sponsoring the fraternity and will act as coach.

For the past year this fraternity, which represents San Francisco State in inter-collegiate forensic competition, has been inactive, but anticipates a successful year under Mr. Shull, according to Jack Werchick, former president. At Thursday's meeting Mr. Shull will look over new prospects for the debate squad. The fraternity will elect officers to carry on its work for the coming year.

"I wish to notify the student body, especially the new students, that Delta Sigma is anxious to have everyone join the Debate Society whether he is experienced or not," Rose stated.

Besides Werchick and Rose, other returning debaters are Bob Links, Louis Abate, Wallace Gallagher and Bert Johnson. Positions on the Freshman Women's and junior varsity teams are without candidates.

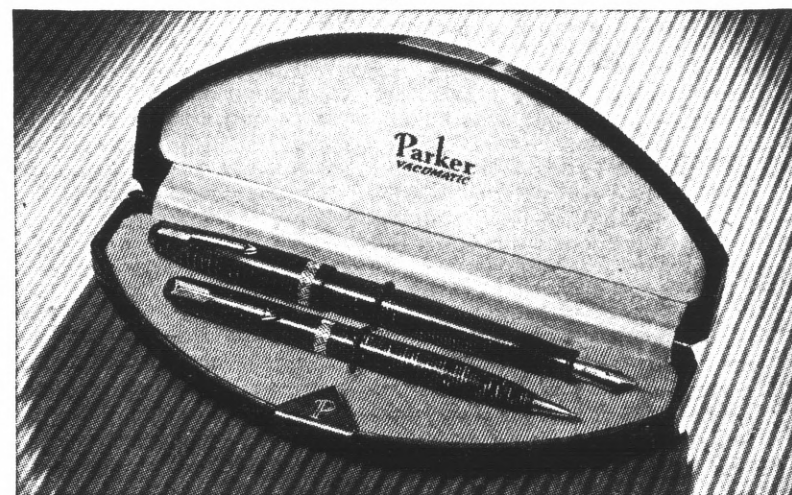

FROM THIS SIDE

At Random: I wonder if we aren't passing up an excellent publicity bet by not enlarging the lettering of the college name on the fences of Roberts Field. Why not print the words: "Property of San Francisco State College" large enough so that no one will miss it. Don't forget that we've got to do our own exploiting if we want to get anywhere. . . . Add interesting families—the Regiers, the newest and tiniest arrival having just entered the portals of the college, making a grand total of four now enrolled. And one more on the way, if we understand it correctly.

The Revolutionary Pen That Won't Run Dry In a New and Superlative Model—the Speedline

It's not how much a person has in his pocket that determines whether or not he selects the new 1938 Parker Speedline Vacumatic—it's how much he has above his shoulders!

Some other pens cost as much as this revolutionary invention, yet no one having the "low down" on pens wants to pay these prices without getting these new-day advantages. For example:

A new all-time high in ink capacity, hence a Pen that never starts anything it cannot finish. A Pen that shows the ENTIRE ink supply—shows when to refill —hence one that never runs dry in classes or exams.

An utterly exclusive Style—laminated Pearl and Jet—now with slender Speedline shape—the most restful ever conceived.

And not merely modern in Style, but wholly modern in mechanism, too. Its SACLESS and patented Diaphragm Filler radically departs from all earlier types, regardless of whether they have a rubber ink sac or not.

Be sure to see and try this pedigreed Beauty today at any good pen counter. The Parker Pen Co., Janesville, Wisconsin.
